Deficit Mitigation, Death Penalty and the Future of UConn Health Center This Week on CT-N Capitol Report

Hartford, CT – Starting at 7 p.m. this Friday, Connecticut Network viewers can get the latest on efforts to address the state budget crisis in this week's episode of Capitol Report, the network's week-in-review highlights program. OPM Secretary Robert Genuario appeared before the legislature's Appropriations Committee on Wednesday to brief on Governor Rell's most recent deficit mitigation plan, which she announced last week.

Also featured in Capitol Report this week are excerpts from Wednesday's Judiciary Committee public hearing, which included testimony on proposed legislation that would make changes to the death penalty statute in Connecticut based on recommendations made in 2003 by the Connecticut Commission on the Death Penalty. This episode also includes highlights of the governor and the University of Connecticut's proposal to establish a regional health network around the UConn Health Center, and other events in state government this week.

Capitol Report summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

Episodes of Capitol Report are also available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand and podcast downloads of each episode, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
