PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS, DEATH PENALTY BAN AND REFERRED BILLS THIS WEEK ON CT-N CAPITOL REPORT

Hartford, CT – Starting at 7 p.m. this Friday, Connecticut Network viewers can follow the progress of the House of Representative’s work during this week’s episode of Capitol Report, the network’s week-in-review highlights program. The House met Tuesday to consider a wide range of legislation including a measure that would change the election of President of the United States to a national popular vote.

Also featured in Capitol Report this week are excerpts from Wednesday’s House session which included debate on legislation abolishing the death penalty in Connecticut. This episode also features highlights from referred bill meetings of the Appropriations and Finance committees – including a measure mandating paid sick leave for employees – and other events in state government this week.

Capitol Report summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

Episodes of Capitol Report are also available online, in keeping with the network’s seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand and podcast downloads of each episode, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.

CT-N is available full-time on expanded basic cable statewide. Visit ct-n.com to find the channel location for the network in your community or to watch online. All Connecticut Network programming is closed captioned for the hearing impaired.
