Labor Agreement Details, AG Qualifications, and Committee Referrals on Major Bills This Week on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – Starting at 7 p.m. this Friday, Connecticut Network viewers can get details on state employee concessions during this week's episode of Capitol Report: Week in Review. An agreement was reached between state employee unions and the Malloy administration last Friday afternoon, prompting the rescission of 4,700 layoff notices that had begun to go out earlier last week.

Also featured in Capitol Report this weekend are highlights from the week's House and Senate sessions where a number of bills were taken up, including one delineating the qualifications for the office of State Attorney General: a direct response to the debate surrounding former Secretary of the State Susan Bysiewicz's ability to run for the office in 2010. This episode also includes highlights from Appropriations and Finance Committee meetings – which took up referrals of bills concerning the palliative use of marijuana, cyber-bullying and the fate of the UConn Health Center – and other events in state government this week.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. Monday mornings (Just prior to Capitol Report: Morning Update with Diane Smith); check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand and podcast downloads of each episode, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
