State Employee Concessions, Parental Notification and More on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – Starting at 7 p.m. this Friday, Connecticut Network viewers can get the latest on the state’s rapidly-changing budget landscape during this week’s episode of Capitol Report: Week in Review. With several state employee bargaining units voting to reject the proposed concessions package, both state and union leaders grow increasingly concerned about the status of the concession agreement: and the changes to the budget that will be proposed if it is not accepted.

This episode of Capitol Report also includes highlights from Tuesday’s Program Review and Investigations Committee public hearing on adolescent health care – which included lengthy testimony on the subject of parental notification – and other events in state government this week.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network’s seamless integration of telecast and interactive content.
