State Troopers Reinstated, Economic Summit Convenes, New Higher Ed Oversight Board Begins Work on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – Starting at 7 p.m. this Friday, Connecticut Network viewers can recap a busy public policy week on the latest episode of Capitol Report: Week in Review. The Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection announced the recall earlier this week of 56 State Troopers laid off over the summer. The retirement of 40 senior troopers prompted the reinstatement of the newly-graduated troopers, who were among the layoffs initiated when state employee unions voted against the ratification of a proposed concessions package in June.

Capitol Report this week also includes highlights from Governor Malloy's economic summit and discussions with business and municipal leaders, all of which focused on job creation in Connecticut. This episode also includes excerpts from the first meeting of the newly-formed Board of Regents for Higher Education – the result of governance consolidations between state community-technical colleges, online universities and the state's university system – and other events in state government this week.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content.
