CAMPAIGN 2008 CULMINATES ON CT-N WITH DEBATE MARATHON, LIVE ELECTION NIGHT TELECAST WITH WTIC RADIO

Hartford, CT – With a week to go until Election Day, the Connecticut .Network serves up the coming weekend’s programming as Connecticut voters’ last chance to “study up” before heading to the polls.

The network’s traditional “debate marathon” begins on Friday afternoon and will run through Sunday evening. The marathon will feature formal debates and candidate forums from Connecticut’s five congressional races; consult CT-N’s daily program schedule for exact airtimes.

As the polls close on November 4th, CT-N will begin its live Election Night coverage in partnership with WTIC News/Talk 1080 starting at 7 p.m. The telecast will include simulcasts of WTIC’s coverage, field reports via satellite from local TV news affiliates and real-time election returns from the Associated Press.

CT-N is available full-time on expanded basic cable statewide. Visit ct-n.com to find the channel location for the network in your community or to watch online. All Connecticut Network programming is closed captioned for the hearing impaired.

Winner of the 2007 Helen M. Loy Freedom of Information Award and national Sunshine Award from the Society of Professional Journalists, Connecticut Network is the state’s source for complete and balanced television and webcast coverage of state government and public affairs. CT-N is managed and operated by the Connecticut Public Affairs Network, Inc., a nonprofit company founded to educate citizens about state government. For more information, visit CT-N’s website at www.ct-n.com.
