In the Field on Tuesday: “Where We Live” Talks Graphic News Photos

(Hartford, CT) – CT-N returns to Connecticut Public Radio’s studios today as “Where We Live” host John Dankosky takes on the topic, Appropriate for the Front Page? Details on this program’s airing on CT-N and On Demand availability will follow in the network’s daily program schedule and on CT-N.com.

In-studio guests include Kenny Irby, a member of the Senior Faculty for Visual Journalism & Diversity at the The Poynter Institute and Henry McNulty, a former Reader Representative for the Hartford Courant. The radio roundtable will discuss the topic of graphic photographs and their use by mainstream media.

CT-N is available full-time on U-Verse channel 83 and on expanded basic cable statewide. Visit ct-n.com to find the channel location for the network in your community or to watch online. All Connecticut Network programming is closed captioned for the hearing impaired.

Winner of the national Sunshine Award from the Society of Professional Journalists and the Open Government Award from the Connecticut Foundation for Open Government, Connecticut Network is the state’s source for complete and balanced television and webcast coverage of state government and public affairs.
