Storm Recovery Continues as the State's Response is Assessed on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – Starting at 7 p.m. this Friday, Connecticut Network viewers can see more on the state's response to the October nor'easter during the latest episode of Capitol Report: Week in Review. Daily briefings from the governor and Connecticut Light and Power continued to chronicle restoration efforts throughout the week, as Governor Malloy called last Friday for an independent review of CL&P's storm response.

Capitol Report this week also includes highlights from the latest meeting of the "Two-Storm Panel" – formerly the Storm Irene Panel – tasked with developing strategies to improve Connecticut's emergency preparedness levels. This episode also includes excerpts from the governor's monthly Commissioners' meeting and the Long-Term Care Advisory Council – both of which focused on storm-related issues – as well as other events in state government this week.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
