Wrapping up Another Week on the Road: Ethics Board and Judicial Independence

(Hartford, CT) – Connecticut Network crews once again leave the Capitol campus to cover capture important public policy events from around the state. Here are some of the highlights for the balance of this week:

Thursday: CT-N checks in with the Citizens Ethics Advisory Board for their November meeting, scheduled to include the release of one advisory opinion and other discussion.

Friday: Field crew visits Quinnipiac University to cover its Judicial Independence Symposium with many major judicial officials.
