Governor Calls on Legislators to Meet Him at the Negotiating Table on *CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where Governor Dannel Malloy called for bipartisan budget talks, plans for direct flights to Europe were revealed and a new jobs report was released as a major company announces hundreds of layoffs on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

The week kicked off Monday when Governor Malloy called for bipartisan budget negotiations to address a growing shortfall due to lower-than-expected state revenue. This week's episode will review what the Governor believes should be kept on and off the table, the responses provided by the state's legislative leaders, as well as a request from members of the Connecticut Conference of Municipalities to be included in the upcoming negotiations.

The Governor continued his week by commenting on the latest jobs report, which revealed that the state lost 7,600 jobs in the month of September. The report comes the same week ESPN, which is based in Bristol, announced it would be cutting roughly 300 jobs from its worldwide workforce – 200 of which would come from its Connecticut operations.

Capitol Report will also cover a new deal reached between the state and Aer Lingus to bring direct flights between Bradley International Airport and Dublin, Ireland, as well as the concerns raised at a Public Utilities Regulatory Authority \(PURA\) hearing on the third party electric supplier market.
