Details on Latest Budget Proposals Released on *CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where details on the latest budget proposals were released, insight on the state’s fiscal future was provided and possible changes to tax structures were discussed on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

As bipartisan budget talks between legislative leaders and Governor Dannel Malloy continued into a fourth week, proposals previously and currently on the negotiating table were released to the public. The Appropriations and Finance, Revenue & Bonding Committees heard what the Governor’s budget office and the nonpartisan Office of Fiscal Analysis see in the state’s fiscal future and the State Tax Panel focused on possible changes to both the property and personal income tax structures in Connecticut.

This week’s Capitol Report will also review day two of a hearing before a Hartford Superior Court judge regarding the legality of mailings sent by the state’s Democratic Party during the 2014 election cycle, as well as the message Governor Malloy shared with the Tobacco and Health Trust Fund Board during a meeting this week.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings.
