Tuition Hikes at UConn and Governor Looks Ahead to 2016 on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where Governor Dannel Malloy provided a preview of his 2016 priorities, including his continued fight for a transportation lockbox, and the UConn Board of Trustees voted on tuition increases on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Following 2015's second Special Session last week, Governor Malloy attended the Middlesex County Chamber of Commerce's annual holiday breakfast where he shared an end-of-year message that included a look ahead to his priorities in 2016. Despite the setback in the legislature during last week's session, the Governor stepped up his talk to get a constitutional lockbox for transportation funds on the ballot next November.

Elsewhere at the Capitol, the State Tax Panel concluded its work and came to a consensus on the number of recommendations it will provide the General Assembly in regard to tax reform in Connecticut. Capitol Report will also review a meeting held by a working group discussing possible legislative proposals that would address serious concerns in the home health care community and the UConn Board of Trustees' vote to approve tuition increases at the state's flagship university.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes.
