Governor Malloy Puts Second Term in Full Gear on *CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – Starting at 7 p.m. Friday, Connecticut Network viewers will recap a very active week for Governor Dannel Malloy on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Fresh off his inauguration, the first full week of his second term was a busy one for Governor Malloy. On Monday he led a special meeting of the State Bond Commission where the group approved plans to borrow millions of dollars to fund projects across the state. The borrowed funds will go toward a multitude of projects that include the newly named CTrail Hartford Line, municipal school construction and infrastructure updates – among many others.

The Governor continued his bustling week on Wednesday by speaking before members of the Connecticut Council of Small Towns (COST) at their annual meeting. During his appearance he, along with other legislative leaders, discussed municipal funding and property tax reform. Later in the day, Malloy announced the latest addition to his administration when he tapped former State Representative Betsy Ritter of Waterford as the next Commissioner on Aging.

Friday's Capitol Report will also discuss a request for more independence made by regulators from the Public Utility Regulatory Authority (PURA), legislative committee processes that got underway at the Capitol and newly released prison population figures.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
