CT-N Inaugurates 2015 with LIVE Coverage of Opening Day

Hartford, CT – Starting at 9 a.m. on Wednesday, January 7, the Connecticut Network (CT-N), will kick off live coverage of the second inauguration of Governor Dannel P. Malloy and the first day of the 2015 Legislative Session as it hosts CT-N Inauguration and Opening Day 2015 on television and on their website at CT-N.com

CT-N Inauguration and Opening Day 2015 will be led by CT-N's Diane Smith who will host live guests – including historians, political commentators and legislative leaders – throughout the day. Diane will guide viewers through one of the busiest days on the 2015 state government calendar and discuss the important legislative issues that are expected to be brought up during the upcoming session.

CT-N will provide live coverage of the inauguration ceremonies for Governor Dannel P. Malloy, who will be entering his second term as Connecticut's governor after his victory in the November 2014 Gubernatorial Election. As is custom, Governor Malloy will walk in the Inauguration Day Parade (scheduled for 11:30 a.m.) along Capitol Avenue in Hartford to his ceremony at the State Armory, where the Oath of Office will be administered at 1:30 p.m.

The Connecticut Network will also be providing live coverage on TV and online of the State Senate and the House of Representatives' first sessions of 2015, as well as the governor's State of the State Address to both chambers at 4 p.m.
