CT-N Viewers Can Start Their Day with Day Break: CT-N's Newest Morning E-Mail

Hartford, CT – The Connecticut Network (CT-N) is set to introduce a new feature to help keep the state's citizens engaged and informed on everything happening at the State Capitol and throughout the state: CT-N Day Break.

CT-N Day Break, which is delivered right to subscribers' inboxes each morning, provides a detailed listing of the Connecticut Network's recently added OnDemand files and what will be broadcast & streaming live each day. Viewers can receive CT-N Day Break each weekday morning, for free, by subscribing at the Connecticut Network's website, <http://www.CT-N.com/subscribe.asp>. Those who subscribe will begin receiving Day Break the very next morning. You can view a sample of CT-N Day Break here.

This new feature follows CT-N's recent initiative, CT-N Instant, a live stream that provides raw, immediate feeds of the news briefings, meetings, court hearings and other programming regularly covered by CT-N. CT-N Day Break continues the Connecticut Network's push to equip the citizens of Connecticut with reliable, timely and unbiased coverage & tools that provide the information they need to stay informed on state government issues.

CT-N is available full-time for Frontier Communications U-Verse customers on channel 83 and on expanded basic cable statewide. Visit ct-n.com to find the channel location for the network in your community or to watch online.

Nominated for a 2012 Boston/New England Emmy Award, Winner of the national Sunshine Award from the Society of Professional Journalists and the Excellence in Journalism Award from the Connecticut Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists, the Connecticut Network is the state's source for complete and balanced television and webcast coverage of state government and public affairs. For more information, become a fan of CT-N on Facebook, follow the network at www.twitter.com/CTNetworkTV or visit CT-N's website at www.ct-n.com.
