State Reacts to New Budget as Special Session Draws Near on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week of reactions to the new budget and announcements for new transportation projects on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

A week after the biennial budget was passed by the Connecticut General Assembly and signed by Governor Dannel Malloy, the Governor began highlighting major transportation projects that will now receive funding. However, members of a commission tasked with attracting corporations provided strong comments regarding the budget, particularly on how it will impact Connecticut businesses.

While a start date has not yet been set, legislative leaders and the Governor have begun looking ahead to the Special Session expected to take place in the coming weeks – which will be needed to act on unfinished business from the 2015 Legislative Session. Capitol Report will also look ahead to the Special Session and review a briefing held by the Connecticut Association of Boards of Education where 2015 bills that affect schools and municipalities were discussed.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
