Connecticut General Assembly Finishes its Business on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where the General Assembly met in special session to complete unfinished work, including the state’s biennial budget, on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

The Connecticut General Assembly met in special session on Monday to finish business from this year’s regular session, which ended nearly a month ago on June 3. Both of the chambers debated and voted on the budget revisions requested by Governor Dannel Malloy, which were approved and signed into law by the Governor at a signing ceremony on Tuesday – just days before the budget is set to take effect.

Final action was also taken on a bill concerning the use of excessive force by Connecticut police officers, as well as the Governor’s “Second Chance Society” initiative. Capitol Report will have a complete wrap-up of each of these debates, as well as the comments made by legislative leaders after the 2015 Special Session.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network’s seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.

CT-N is available full-time for Frontier Communications U-Verse customers on channel 83 and on expanded basic cable statewide.
