Governor Continues Jobs Tour & Bill Signings on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where Governor Dannel Malloy celebrated new jobs and laws, including his Second Chance Society initiative, on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Fresh off the July Fourth holiday, Governor Malloy extended celebrations into Monday during a visit to Turbine Technologies in Farmington where he highlighted economic growth on his continuing “Jobs Tour.” Following his tour of the facility, the Governor also commented on the impact of a potential Aetna and Humana merger, as well as Hallmark’s announcement that they will be closing its Enfield distribution center.

A few days later on Thursday, the Governor continued his week of celebrating with a bill signing ceremony for his Second Chance Society initiative, which passed with bipartisan support during last week’s Special Session. He welcomed a group of legislators, members of the criminal justice system and others to the Capitol – all of whom praised the legislation and new law.

This week’s episode of Capitol Report will also review a task force’s continued study of the humane treatment of animals, as well as a community forum on race relations that drew a big crowd in New London.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes.
