Supreme Court Overturns the Death Penalty on *CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where the Connecticut Supreme Court made a major decision in regard to the death penalty and legislators began taking an intensive look at the state's DCF facilities on this week's episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

On Thursday the state's highest court ruled that it would be unconstitutional for the eleven inmates currently on death row to be executed, thus outlawing capital punishment. It was three years ago that Connecticut abolished the death penalty; however those who were already on death row when the law was passed would not be saved. This week's episode will discuss the court's ruling and Governor Dannel Malloy's reaction.

Elsewhere on Capitol Avenue, the Committee on Children began taking an intensive look at the secure facilities operated by the Department of Children & Families and former pro baseball player Doug Glanville attended a bill signing ceremony for legislation that was passed after he was racially profiled in his own Hartford driveway.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
