DMV Prepares to Put Itself in Park & Governor Discusses State Layoffs on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where Governor Dannel Malloy commented on the Labor Department’s layoff announcement and the Department of Motor Vehicles began preparations for a week-long shut down on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Due to reduced federal funding, Connecticut’s Department of Labor announced on Wednesday that it would be issuing layoff notices to nearly 100 state employees. Governor Malloy, who also spent his week promoting the state’s new bike lane projects and farmers markets, weighed in on both the layoffs and a new lawsuit over recent legislation that would allow a third casino in Connecticut.

Next week, the DMV will be conducting a state-wide shut down of its branches as it undergoes upgrades related to a computer modernization project. DMV Commissioner Andres Ayala shared words of warning and advice for state residents as the department will only be handling licensing services from August 11 – 15. Capitol Report will cover the Governor’s and DMV Commissioner’s comments, as well as the latest fundraising efforts being made at the University of Connecticut.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes.
