GOP Leaders & Hospital Execs Decry Recent Budget Cuts on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where the state’s republican leadership responded to the recent budget rescissions announced by Governor Dannel Malloy on this week’s episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Flanked by executives from some of the state’s hospitals, Republican leaders from both chambers of the Connecticut General Assembly held a briefing Tuesday to protest the budget cuts ordered by Governor Malloy last week. Friday night’s episode will discuss the cuts ordered by Malloy, the impact on Connecticut’s hospitals and the responses heard from the state’s lawmakers.

After announcing the latest round of rescissions last week, the Governor inspected and reported on the rail yard upgrades currently taking place at New Haven’s Union Station. During his visit to the Elm City, Governor Malloy renewed his call for a constitutional lockbox, which would require certain state funds to only be spent on the state’s transportation needs.

Capitol Report will also review the Tobacco and Health Trust Fund Board of Directors’ latest meeting on allocating tobacco settlement money, as well as the results from a domestic violence study performed by the Connecticut Academy of Science and Engineering.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network’s seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.

CT-N is available full-time for Frontier Communications U-Verse customers on channel 83 and on expanded basic cable statewide.
