Governor Appoints New Cyber Security Chief and Potential Tuition Increases Discussed on *CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where the Governor made an administrative appointment to a newly-created position, the Board of Regents discussed potential tuition increases at community colleges, and a new law allowing children to obtain medical marijuana was celebrated on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

On Wednesday Governor Dannel Malloy announced that he was appointing Arthur House, the former chairman of the Public Utility Regulatory Authority (PURA), to the newly-created position of Chief Cyber Security Risk Officer. The following day Governor Malloy visited the Connecticut Children’s Medical Center in Hartford to take part in a bill signing ceremony for a new law allowing children to obtain medical marijuana for certain medical conditions. The Governor and his Transportation Commissioner also toured a construction site along the new Hartford Rail Line this week, where he touted the ongoing development of the project which will shuttle commuters between New Haven and Springfield, Massachusetts.

Capitol Report will also review a meeting of the Board of Regents for Higher Education’s Finance Committee, where potential tuition increases for community college students were discussed, as well as the Health Care Cabinet’s meeting where members discussed possible recommendations for containing health care costs.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network’s seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
