State Budget Projections, Prison Population Numbers, and 2017 Open Enrollment on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap the Governor’s comments on state budget projections, newly-released prison population figures, and a list of allocations approved by the State Bond Commission on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

This past week Governor Dannel Malloy discussed the state’s budget projections and what lies ahead for the upcoming fiscal year beginning July 1, 2017. Meanwhile, the State Bond Commission approved a long list of allocations, including bond dollars for a Greenwich hedge fund firm which, despite criticism, was defended by the Governor. Elsewhere at the Capitol, the Spending Cap Commission debated whether funding for distressed municipalities should be counted under the spending cap.

Capitol Report will also review new prison population numbers, which were released at this week’s meeting of the Criminal Justice Policy Advisory Council, as well as an update from Access Health CT on open enrollment for health coverage in 2017 in the wake of rising rates.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
