Looking Ahead to the Next Budget, Projected State Agency Deficiencies and Boosting Economic Stability on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap Governor Malloy’s comments after he was asked about his upcoming biennial budget plan, a public hearing on projected deficiencies in state agency budgets, and priority areas identified by the Commission on Economic Competitiveness that would boost fiscal and economic stability on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Following an event in downtown Hartford Monday, Governor Dannel Malloy was asked by state house reporters what he might propose in the biennial budget plan that he is expected to present in February 2017. Back at the State Capitol, the legislature’s Appropriations Committee held its annual November public hearing on projected state agency deficiencies. Members of the Commission on Economic Competitiveness also met this past week to identify key priority areas for boosting economic and fiscal stability in Connecticut.

Capitol Report will also review a meeting of the Certificate of Need Task Force, where Lt. Governor Nancy Wyman listened to concerns regarding the possible recommendations that will ultimately be made to improve the hospital consolidation process in the state.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network’s seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
