Governor Malloy kicked off 2016 by reviewing the state's accomplishments over the past year in the area of transportation. Flanked by DOT Commissioner James Redeker at Union Station in Hartford, the Governor also looked ahead to his new priorities for the coming year. Later in the week, he attended a briefing at the Niantic Annex at York Correctional Institution where he announced that the Department of Correction would be closing the facility on January 9. This closure marks the fourth correctional facility closure since the Governor took office in 2011.
