Budget Adjustments, DMV Lines and Preparations for the Zika Virus on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where the state legislature got down to business with meetings and public hearings, as the governor introduced new legislation and announced plans to combat the Zika virus on this week's episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Committees got back to work this week in the Legislative Office Building, notably the Appropriations Committee which held meetings and public hearings on the governor's proposed budget revisions for human services, higher education, conservation and development. Elsewhere in the LOB, the Judiciary Committee held confirmation hearings for judges re-nominated to the bench by the governor and the Committee on Children looked at ways to improve Connecticut's law on student athletes and concussions by focusing on youth sports.

Meanwhile in the Executive Branch, Governor Malloy introduced legislation designed to reduce wait times at the Department of Motor Vehicles and Secretary of the State Denise Merrill announced a proposal to link DMV transactions with automatic voter registration. The Governor concluded his week by announcing his nominee to head the Department of Public Health, as well as a statewide plan to battle the Zika virus here in Connecticut.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
