State Agencies and Public Discuss Governor's Budget Adjustments on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where the Appropriations Committee heard from state agencies and the public on Governor Malloy's proposed budget adjustments, the state received praise for recent efforts to curb opioid abuse & veteran homelessness and the General Assembly voted on judicial nominations on this week's episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

The legislature's Appropriations Committee continued to hear from various state agencies and the public throughout the week as they held meetings and public hearings regarding the Governor's proposed budget adjustments. Elsewhere in the Legislative Office Building, the Governor's nominee to lead the Labor Department, former Hamden Mayor Scott Jackson, went before the Executive and Legislative Nominations Committee to fulfill the first step in his confirmation process. Over at the Capitol, both the State Senate and House of Representatives debated and voted on judicial nominations during their second sessions of the year.

Capitol Report will also review the national attention Connecticut received this week for its efforts on extinguishing veterans' homelessness, as well as the commentary made by a team of drug experts sent by President Barack Obama to praise the state's fight against opioid and heroin abuse.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
