Gun Permits, Test Scores, Paid Family Leave and Retirement Savings on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where Governor Dannel Malloy appealed to residents to accept his plans for budget cuts and various legislative committees discussed bills related to gun permits, student test scores, paid family & medical leave and retirement savings on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Governor Malloy participated in another town hall this week as he continued his tour across the state talking with residents about the realities of the state's budget deficit and the actions he believes Connecticut must take to right the ship. Over at the Legislative Office Building committees continued their work reviewing proposed bills. The Public Safety and Security Committee debated and voted on a bill regarding the presentation of a gun permit upon request of law enforcement. The Higher Education and Employment Advancement Committee heard testimony related to the transparency of the UConn Foundation, while the Education Committee debated a bill that would permanently exclude student test scores from teacher evaluations.

This week's episode will also discuss the status of the much talked about contract for UConn's non-teaching staff, as well as the public's comment on bills requiring paid family & medical leave and the creation of a statewide retirement saving plan.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
