Governor & Lawmakers Negotiate State Budget on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where negotiations between the Governor and Republican leaders on a state budget took center stage and the legislature voted on bills relating to medical marijuana for children, workers' compensation for firefighters and financial aid for undocumented students on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

As the 2016 Legislative Session begins to wind down, Governor Dannel Malloy sat down with Republican lawmakers in hopes to nail down a plan that will balance the state budget next fiscal year. Capitol Report will review what the Governor and leaders from both sides of the aisle are now saying about the current status of negotiations.

This week's episode will also cover bills taken up by the Connecticut General Assembly, including proposals related to medical marijuana for children, workers' compensation for firefighters diagnosed with cancer, financial aid for undocumented college students, the reduction of single-use plastic & paper bags, and assisting small veteran-owned businesses in the state.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes.
