Second Chance Society & Big Changes in the Legislature on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week where a prominent member of the House of Representatives announced his departure and the Governor called for another special session, the second of the year, on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Following the General Assembly's special session to revise the state budget for the upcoming fiscal year, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Brendan Sharkey of Hamden, announced his decision not to seek reelection this fall. However his work may not be done as Governor Dannel Malloy called on the legislature to hold yet another special session this year in order to pass his Second Chance Society 2.0 measure.

Capitol Report will also review the impact of the state budget revisions after groups like the Autism Spectrum Disorder Advisory Council discussed provisions affecting their programs and the Latino & Puerto Rican Affairs Commission held its final meeting before it's consolidated with the other five legislative commissions.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
