Bail Reform, Billions in Bonding Canceled & Charter Schools on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap the action the Governor has taken on bills so far this year, the House of Representatives' decision on a billion dollars in state bonding and a debate on adding additional seats to Connecticut charter schools on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Ahead of Thursday's Special Session in the Connecticut House of Representatives Governor Dannel Malloy made the decision to compromise on his latest Second Chance Society bill, which focused on bail reform. Capitol Report will look at the details of this compromise and the action the House took on both his bail reform initiative and a separate bill that cancels more than a billion dollars in state bonding for previously authorized projects in the state.

This week's episode will also review the State Board of Education's debate on a request for additional seats at a number of Connecticut charter schools, as well as the action the Governor has taken so far on bills passed by the General Assembly during the 2016 Legislative Session.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
