Tourism Caucus, Governor's DNC Speech & Disability Advocacy on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap a meeting of the legislature's Tourism Caucus, a public hearing on the state's disability advocacy system and the Governor's speech at the Democratic National Convention in Philadelphia with the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

The Legislative Tourism Caucus, a bipartisan group of lawmakers, met this week to question Governor Dannel Malloy's recent decision to eliminate funding for local tourism districts throughout the state and to hear how the district's directors are coping with their slashed budgets. Meanwhile, down in Philadelphia, the Governor attended the 2016 National Democratic Convention where he took the stage to speak in front of a national audience.

Back up in Connecticut, the legislature's Regulation Review Committee considered new regulations to put an expedited pardons process in place and state officials held a public hearing to discuss the upcoming transition of Connecticut's disability advocacy system to a non-profit entity.

Capitol Report will also review the latest parole hearings held by the Board of Pardons and Paroles and a meeting held by the Department of Public Health's Committee on the Practice of Naturopathy.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings.
