Closing Arguments in CCJEF Trial, Election Progress, & Hurricane Prep on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap the closing arguments in a 7-month-long education funding trial, an announcement from the Secretary of the State on Connecticut’s election process and the state’s continued preparations for potential hurricanes on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Closing arguments were made this past week in the landmark ‘CCJEF v. Rell’ education funding trial. The trial, which has been playing out at Hartford Superior Court, began this past January. Down the street at the State Capitol, Secretary of the State Denise Merrill held a briefing to announce progress being made in the modernization of Connecticut’s election process. Meanwhile, Governor Dannel Malloy commented this past week on the growing opposition to budget reductions for the state’s three watchdog agencies, as the elections enforcement, freedom of information and ethics commissions join forces to fight the cutbacks.

Capitol Report will also review the state’s continued preparations for potential hurricanes this summer and early fall, including a new and free mobile app that will inform residents of emergency situations.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week’s proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N’s online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
