Total Wine's Minimum Pricing Sour Grapes & a New Milestone for CTfastrak on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap several developments after a liquor store chain defied the state's law on pricing and a new ridership milestone for the CTfastrak bus rapid transit system on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Total Wine & More, a liquor retailer with stores in Connecticut, filed an anti-trust lawsuit against the Department of Consumer Protection this past week over the state's minimum pricing law. Total Wine briefly defied the law, which Governor Dannel Malloy has been fighting to abolish, by slashing its prices for a couple of days - but eventually the retailer agreed to cease selling below the minimum price and pay a fine. In other news, the Governor and officials from the Department of Transportation celebrated a new milestone for CTfastrak, as the bus rapid transit system's ridership officially topped four million.

Capitol Report will also review a pair of public hearings where legislators learned more about state agencies' plans to allocate federal block grant dollars, as well as a new task force which began its work analyzing school climate in Connecticut.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
