Committees Get to Work, Judges Up for Reappointment and the Governor's Message to the Business Community on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m., Connecticut Network viewers will recap the legislative committees' first meetings of the year, confirmation hearings for judges up for reappointment and Governor Dannel Malloy's comments to the business community and municipal leaders on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

All of the legislative committees, which are working differently this session due to the equal party split in the State Senate, met their deadlines for holding organizational meetings this past week. The meetings provided an opportunity for new leadership teams to set the stage for the work their committees have ahead of them this legislative session. Meanwhile, the Judiciary Committee held confirmation hearings for judges up for reappointment and the Medical Marijuana Board of Physicians held a formal hearing to consider petitions for seven new conditions.

Capitol Report will also review Governor Malloy's week, where he took time to reach out to the business community and municipal leaders as his administration prepares the two-year budget plan that he will present to the legislature next month.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
