CT-N's Cross-Platform Coverage of Budget Day 2017: Wednesday, February 8

Hartford, CT – This Wednesday, February 8, Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will go inside the State Capitol as Connecticut's leading source for state government provides full, gavel-to-gavel coverage of Budget Day 2017 on television and online at CT-N.com. Governor Dannel Malloy has been laying out proposals and setting expectations in the weeks leading up to Wednesday and all eyes will be on him as he outlines his biennial budget during a noontime speech to the Connecticut General Assembly. Beforehand at 9:30 a.m., join award-winning journalist Diane Smith on CT-N's website, CT-N.com, as she hosts live guests, including legislative leaders, for in-depth interviews on the state budget and issues currently up for debate within the legislature.

CT-N will provide live TV and online coverage of the Connecticut House of Representatives' and State Senate's Budget Day Sessions and will livestream OPM Secretary Ben Barnes' 10:30 a.m. media briefing on Governor Malloy's proposed budget on CT-N.com. A full schedule of CT-N's Budget Day 2017 coverage can be found at CT-N.com.

CT-N is available on expanded basic cable statewide and Roku. Visit CT-N.com to find the channel location for the network in your community or to watch online. All Connecticut Network programming is closed captioned for the hearing impaired.

Nominated for a 2012 & 2015 Boston/New England Regional Emmy Award, Winner of the National Sunshine Award from the Society of Professional Journalists and the Excellence in Journalism Award from the Connecticut Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists, the Connecticut Network is the state's source for complete and balanced television and webcast coverage of state government and public affairs. For more information, become a fan of CT-N on Facebook, follow the network on Twitter (@CTNetworkTV) or visit CT-N's website at www.CT-N.com.
