Providing Towns More Time on Local Budgets, Early Voting, and the Marijuana Debate on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap a debate in the State Senate on allowing municipalities to delay their local budgets this year, testimony on a proposal that would permit early voting in the state, and a public hearing on the legalization of marijuana on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

The State Senate was in session this week and the upper chamber debated an emergency certified bill that would provide towns and cities more time to adopt their local budgets as the legislature works to revise Governor Malloy's proposed state budget. Meanwhile, the Governor took time to shine light on Connecticut communities that would benefit from the municipal aid changes in his budget plan.

Elsewhere at the Capitol, the Public Health Committee held a public hearing on a bill that would legalize recreational marijuana within the state and the Government Administration & Elections Committee heard testimony on proposals to allow early voting.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
