Gun Permits, a Third Casino and the Crumbling Foundation Crisis on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap a public hearing on two gun-related bills, a committee vote on a potential third casino in the state, and a move to assist homeowners devastated by the crumbling foundation crisis in northeastern Connecticut on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

The Judiciary Committee held a public hearing this week that brought many people to the Capitol to testify on two separate gun-related bills. One of the proposals discussed at the hearing applies to open carry and would require a gun owner to show their gun permit at the request of a police officer. The second would potentially allow out-of-state gun permits to become valid in Connecticut and vice-versa in other states.

Capitol Report will also review the Public Safety & Security Committee's votes on two bills concerning a third casino in the state, as well as a bill that would establish a fund that all Connecticut homeowners would pay into which would assist those affected by the crumbling foundation crisis plaguing the northeast section of the state.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
