Large Crowd Turnout for Hearings on School Aid, Highway Tolls, and Crumbling Foundations on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network viewers will recap a week of lengthy public hearings where input was gathered on school aid, electronic highway tolls and crumbling home foundations on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

The legislature's various committees continued their work this week as large crowds descended on the Legislative Office Building in Hartford to attend some lengthy public hearings. The Education Committee heard testimony on Governor Dannel Malloy's plan to redistribute school aid to towns and cities, the Transportation Committee gathered input on electronic highway tolls, and a joint committee hearing was held on the growing crisis of crumbling home foundations in the northeast corner of the state. Capitol Report will review the testimony heard at each of these hearings, as well as the Environment Committee's vote on a bill that would tax single-use plastic and paper bags.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
