House Votes on Pay Equity and Governor Announces 2016 Graduation Rates on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap the House's vote on a bill that would help ensure pay equity in the workforce, public testimony on a proposal that would tax sugary drinks and the latest high school graduation rates announced by the Governor and Education Commissioner on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

The Connecticut House of Representatives met in session this week where they voted on a bill that would increase pay equity for women in the workforce. Meanwhile, the Finance, Revenue & Bonding Committee held a public hearing where they received the public's input on proposals that would tax certain sugary drinks and impose a surcharge on Connecticut hedge funds. Elsewhere at the Capitol, the Appropriations Committee heard from state agency heads about what is causing their budget shortfalls this year, the Public Health Committee voted on Governor Malloy's opioid diversion & abuse bill and the Judiciary Committee let the clock run out on a number of high profile proposals from this session.

Capitol Report will also review the Governor's announcement regarding the latest high school graduation rates, where he also explained why changes to the way Connecticut funds education must be changed for future success.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
