Framework of Union Agreement Reached, Senate OKs Third Casino & House Debates Early Voting on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap Governor Malloy's major update on union negotiations, the State Senate's vote on a third casino and a House debate on allowing early voting on this week's episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

As bipartisan budget talks continue, Governor Dannel Malloy announced that the framework of an agreement that would realize $1.5 billion in union concessions has been reached with union leaders. Meanwhile, with the 2017 Legislative Session winding down, the State Senate voted to authorize a casino in East Windsor and the House of Representatives debated a resolution that would allow Connecticut voters to decide whether the state's constitution should be amended to allow early voting.

Capitol Report will also review the Finance, Revenue & Bonding Committee's work on bills concerning organ donations and the motor vehicle violation point system, as well as the confirmation process for the Governor's recent judicial nominations.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
