Governor & Leaders Meet to Discuss Budget and House Votes on Conversion Therapy Ban on *CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap the first round of state budget negotiations between legislative leaders and Governor Dannel Malloy, the House Speaker's comments about the current budget situation and the votes that took place during this week's House & Senate sessions on latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

On Tuesday Governor Malloy and legislative leaders from both chambers and both sides of the aisle met for the first day of bipartisan state budget talks. The meeting comes a week after the Appropriations Committee was unable to take a vote on a previous budget proposal and Republicans released a plan of their own. Speaker of the House Joe Aresimowicz spoke openly about how the budget situation is impacting legislators and the future of certain proposals as this year's legislative session continues to play out.

Capitol Report will also review this week's House of Representatives and State Senate sessions where a wide range of bills – including a conversion therapy ban, licensing restrictions affecting barbers, swatting penalties and dyslexia training for special education teachers – were put up for votes.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes.
