Budget Talks Come Down to Deadline and Aetna Announces Move to NYC on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap the final days leading up to the state budget deadline, Aetna's announcement about moving its headquarters out of Connecticut and several bills from this past Legislative Session that the Governor signed into law on this week's episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Efforts to pass a biennial budget by the end of day Friday took on a frenzied pace this week as Governor Malloy offered two separate options for moving the state forward without a budget in place. House Democrats presented a budget proposal of their own following a Thursday caucus, however it appears no action will be taken by the legislature before they reach their deadline. Outside of the Capitol, Hartford-based insurance giant Aetna announced after weeks of speculation that it would be moving its headquarters to New York City. The insurer has called Hartford home since 1853.

Capitol Report will review each of these developments, as well as the UConn Board of Trustees' latest action on a budget and several bills signed into law by Governor Malloy that made headlines this past session.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
