Governor Urges Legislature to Pass Budget and Announces Cybersecurity Defense Strategy on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap Governor Malloy's call for the legislature to pass a state budget, his announcement of a new cybersecurity strategy and a Stamford company's promise to add hundreds of new jobs on this week's episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

This past week Governor Malloy urged the state legislature to act on a budget, even a short-term plan, as the lack of one since July 1st has begun to have an impact across Connecticut. State agency heads and community providers raised concerns and pointed to specific examples of residents being hurt by the current budget situation as Democratic and Republican leaders from the House of Representatives discussed dueling budget plans and the chances of a budget vote next week.

Capitol Report will also review the Governor's announcement regarding a state cybersecurity infrastructure and defense strategy - with an action plan to follow - as well as Stamford-based job website company Indeed's promise to add hundreds of new jobs after receiving state incentives.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes.
