Leaders Look to Sept. for Budget Vote and Governor Revises State Funding for Municipalities on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap the latest in state budget news, Governor Malloy's revised state funding plans for municipalities and a review of the fiscal stability of Waterford's Millstone Nuclear Power Station on the latest episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Now in mid-August, the state of Connecticut continues without a budget in place. Democratic leaders in the House of Representatives and State Senate provided an update on negotiations this week as they look to September for a possible budget vote in the legislature. Meanwhile, Governor Dannel Malloy released revised state funding plans for municipalities, which include the total elimination of education funding for 85 Connecticut towns and cities.

Capitol Report will also discuss a review ordered by the Governor that will focus on the fiscal stability of the Millstone Nuclear Power Station in Waterford, as well as the Department of Energy & Environmental Protection's public meetings on the state's Draft Comprehensive Energy Strategy.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.
