Governor Offers Budget Compromise and Asks Residents to Prepare for Hurricane Season on CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review

Hartford, CT – This Friday at 7 p.m. Connecticut Network (CT-N) viewers will recap the latest in state budget talks, including a new compromise proposal from Governor Malloy, the Board of Regents' vote on their own budget and the Governor's message to residents regarding hurricane season on this week's episode of CT-N Capitol Report: Week in Review.

Legislative leaders continued meeting this week in order to work toward a biennial budget agreement that could be put up for a vote next week. Meanwhile, on Friday, Governor Malloy offered a compromise budget proposal in an effort to get a state budget in place this month.

Earlier in the week, following the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey and with Hurricane Irma continuing its path toward Florida, the Governor urged residents to prepare for such storms as the hurricane season continues to heat up. Capitol Report will also review the Board of Regents for Higher Education's Finance Committee's vote on a budget for the current fiscal year and the Education Commissioner's comments to the State Board of Education about funding for schools in the midst of a budget stalemate.

Capitol Report: Week in Review summarizes the activity at the State Capitol during the week, using voice over and graphics to combine history, context, and next steps in the process with full-length excerpts from the week's proceedings. The program premieres on CT-N every Friday night at 7:00 p.m., then rebroadcasts at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Saturdays, 8:00 p.m. on Sundays, and 6:00 a.m. Monday mornings; check CT-N's online program schedule for additional airtimes. Each episode runs between 30 and 60 minutes.

All episodes of Capitol Report are available online, in keeping with the network's seamless integration of telecast and interactive content. Visit www.ct-n.com/CR for OnDemand viewing, annotated with synopses and links to related gavel-to-gavel coverage.
