CONNECTICUT NETWORK TO COVER 2009-2010 SUPREME COURT SESSION

Hartford, CT – The Connecticut Supreme Court announced its calendar for the 2009-2010 court year and the Connecticut Network has begun its coverage of selected oral arguments throughout the session.

The state's highest court routinely hears cases over eight months of the year. The Court's first term began on September 8th and CT-N is scheduled to record two hearings on Thursday September 10th to be aired at a later time. Details on oral arguments to be broadcasted and related air times will be published in the network's daily program schedule and may be viewed on CT-N.com as they become available. For more information about the state Supreme Court, visit the judicial branch's website at www.jud.state.ct.us.

CT-N is available full-time on expanded basic cable. Visit ct-n.com to find the channel location for the network in your community or watch online. All Connecticut Network programming is closed captioned for the hearing impaired.

Winner of the 2007 Helen M. Loy Freedom of Information Award and national Sunshine Award from the Society of Professional Journalists, Connecticut Network is the state's source for complete and balanced television and webcast coverage of state government and public affairs. CT-N is managed and operated by the Connecticut Public Affairs Network, Inc., a non-profit company founded to educate citizens about state government. For more information, visit CT-N's website at www.ct-n.com.
